MURDER CONFESSION "OF MRS. BRADLEY IS ADMITTED BY COURT

"Prosecution. Scores a Strong Point Against Prisoner in Getting In Her Statement to Police She Went to Washington to Kill Brown.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 - Sensations are not lacking in the trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley for the killing of ex-Senator Brown, the prosecution just before closing its case to-day-getting on the records of the Court the confession of murder made to the police by the prisoner. This came as the cuimination of a hot battle between the opposing counsel.

A bitter attack was made on the victim of the shooting by Mrs. Bradley's counsel, who in opening for the defense declared that Brown's perfidy and brutal treatment of the woman goaded her to the crime-

C. W. Morse Declares Betrayal by Friends Caused Barney's Act

Charles W. Morse, describing Charles T. Barney as his nearest and dearest friend, to-day gave a remarkable interview to an Evening World

The head of the Ice Trust looked like a man who had not slept al night. His eyes were red and his face was lined with new wrinkles. In a voice that came very near to the breaking point more than once he said:

that it would be proven that she did not shoot him until he had rushed on and cursed her.

Despite the protest of the defense that the confession was involuntary, the confession was involuntary, the confession was involuntary, the grant that Mrs. Bradley told him lake had meditated the killing of Brown house.
